

LET ALL MEN SING!

400 voice male choir – a rare choral feast!

SATURDAY 15TH NOVEMBER AT 2.30 PM
AIS ARENA, CANBERRA

Massed voices of the Male Choirs Association of Australia
Band of the Royal Military College Duntroon
Canberra soprano Sara Carvalho.

DIRECTED BY GUEST CONDUCTOR DR GUY JANSEN (MNZM)
PRESENTER GEOFF GREY (CSM)

Tickets available from

13 28 49

www.ticketek.com.au

Presented by

Sponsored by

Beyond Bank
AUSTRALIA

Supporting

RMC Band

Australia's elite military Band performs major ceremonial roles for the Australian Defence Force, Vice-Regal and Government agencies, and the Royal Military College and is a highly respected participant in Canberra arts life.

Dr Guy Jansen MNZM

An exceptional leader in the field of choral music and conducting, Guy was recognised In 2011 as a Member of the New Zealand Order of Merit (MNZM) for services to music in New Zealand.

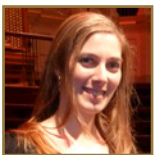

Sara Carvalho

1st Class Honours and Masters degrees at the ANU School of Music, and later a member of Opera Queensland's Young Artist Program, Sara is now teaching music – and performing – in Canberra.

Geoff Grey CSM

Former Commander of the RMC Band, Geoff is now a prominent and passionate director, producer, adjudicator, clinician and ensemble leader, with over three decades of professional performance experience.

Karen Da Silva

Principal Accompanist of the Australian Rugby Choir since 2005. A music teacher, Karen teaches classroom music, extra-curricular music groups, choirs and bands to students from Pre-school to Year 10.

Beverley Glover

Principal Accompanist for the Orange Male Voice Choir since 1989. A stalwart of the Male Choirs Association of Australia as Secretary since revival of the Association in 2006.

